

The Art of Sculpting

Portrait from Life

With Victor Veber & Jana Büttner
At Rignana Estate

14th to 20th September 2026

RETREAT

About the Workshop

This intensive five-day workshop is dedicated to the creation of a realistic and expressive portrait sculpted directly from life. The course is designed to guide students step by step through the entire portrait process, from initial block-in to refined modeling and final adjustments.

Through live demonstrations, individual critiques, and close guidance, participants will gain a clear understanding of facial anatomy, the underlying bone structure of the head, and the relationships that create likeness and expression. Particular attention will be given to the accurate construction of each facial feature—eyes, nose, mouth, and ears—and to their infinite variations.

A specific sculptural methodology will be taught, allowing students to maintain control and clarity throughout every stage of the work. The goal is not only to achieve likeness, but also to develop a solid working process that can be applied independently in future projects.

Participants will work from a live model for six hours each day in a focused yet supportive studio environment.

Victor Veber

Victor Veber is a French figurative Sculptor born in 1994. Originally trained in literature and cinema, he went on to spend three years working on the Cathedral of Strasbourg, where he learned traditional sculpture techniques directly from the legacy of the old masters.

His work has been exhibited in New York, at the Taylor Foundation in Paris, and at the Opéra de Lyon. He received the Art and Museums Society Award in Strasbourg and was invited to present his work at the START European Art Fair. He is also the winner of the BMB International Sculpture Competition.

Today, he divides his time between Lyon and Florence, where he established his own studio after studying sculpture at the Florence Academy of Art.

Jana Büttner

Jana Büttner is a figurative sculptress from Germany. Working in Florence and Salzburg. In her work the main focus is the human figure which she sculpts in clay and cast in Bronze. For her, working with clay shows a connection to human existence based on the circle of growth and decline. Clay starts cracking with time. Often, so do we as people one day our strong bodies begin to wear and fall apart. She feels a deep connection with this material because it gives her the opportunity to express herself with my bare hands creating something new. She also explores human emotions and contradictions. She wants to symbolise the internal reflection we as humans are going through. In our daily lives , it's essential to take a moment for introspection and engage in the art of reflection. Much like a mirror that reveals our external appearance, our internal mirror reflects the depths of our thoughts and emotions.
